

Episode 1 — Image Prompts

The Saver, the Owner, and the 30-Year Gap

Every prompt in this document is complete and self-contained. The style block, the character blocks and the device templates from the series bible have already been written into each one, so there is nothing to look up and nothing to paste in. Copy a box, generate, move to the next.

Shots	64, plus a cast reference sheet and the thumbnail
Runtime	15:20
Aspect	16:9 horizontal (9:16 for Shorts — see note below)
Geography	Adam is ALWAYS on the left. Sami is ALWAYS on the right. Never swap.
Order	Generate the cast reference sheet first, then shots 1–64 in order.

Three things before you start

Pass the reference sheet as an image reference on every single shot.

The written character block alone is not enough — text-only prompts drift on the beard, the collar and the shirt colour within about six frames. This is the most common way a series like this falls apart.

Generate in batches by device, not in story order.

Do all the scoreboard cards together, then all the split frames, then all the Ledger Wall shots. Switching device types mid-batch increases drift.

For the three Shorts, re-render key frames vertically.

Replace the phrase “16:9 horizontal, cinematic composition with generous negative space in the upper third” with “9:16 vertical, characters centred, generous empty space in the upper third”. Nothing else changes.
